HouseCheck names Timothy P. McGraw as new Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer

BOISE, ID – National HouseCheck is pleased to welcome Timothy P. McGraw as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer for the organization. McGraw comes to HouseCheck with more than three decades of financial leadership and business operations experience, most recently serving as CFO for Shaw Development, LLC out of Naples, Florida.

“I am excited for this opportunity to join the HouseCheck team and help the organization build upon the strong foundation that has already been established,” says McGraw. “I welcome the challenge as we look forward to expanding our operations and bringing about much-needed change to a nationwide industry.”

In his role as CFO, McGraw will lead financial management, budgeting, and new business development as HouseCheck works to expand into new territories. In his six years at Shaw Development, McGraw focused on improving financial robustness of operational data and enhancing financial decision support within the organization and leading initiatives that included product and customer profitability analysis, asset efficiency, new business development, budget performance reporting, strategic planning, capital structure optimization, process enhancement and talent development.

“Tim is an experienced leader and financial expert, and is the perfect fit for this critical spot on the Housecheck team,” says HouseCheck CEO, Dennis Conforto. “He has a long track record of success and his intelligence, combined with his experience in navigating the challenges of a broad and expanding marketplace will be invaluable assets in moving HouseCheck forward.”

Prior to joining Shaw, McGraw held positions at Orange Electronic North America, LLC, Visteon Automotive Systems, and Ford Motor Company serving in numerous progressive finance leadership roles in distribution and manufacturing operations, product line management, mergers and acquisitions, investor relations, and shared services. He gained international experience in London, England as the Controller for Visteon’s European and South American Climate manufacturing operations and served as the Global Commercial Controller for Visteon’s Climate operations.

McGraw earned his BSBA in Finance from Miami University, Oxford OH, and his MBA from The Ohio State Fisher School of Business, Columbus, OH.
