

NEWS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Date: Monday, June 3, 2019

Media Contact: Jordan Scott, Communications
Ph: 740-809-2592
jordan.scott@housecheck.com

National HouseCheck Foundation welcomes Carole Johnson, Ph.D. to Board of Directors

BOISE, Idaho, June 3, 2019 – National HouseCheck Foundation is proud to announce the addition of Carole Johnson, Ph.D., to its Board of Directors. An accomplished leader with a passion for youth education and community service, Johnson joins the Board of Directors in helping to deliver the Foundation’s mission of providing support to individuals and families affected by domestic abuse.

“It is an honor to be part of a team of such committed and compassionate individuals working tirelessly to bring support and hope where it’s needed most,” says Johnson. “I am proud to join my fellow Board members, Foundation supporters, and advocates in working together to help bring an end to domestic abuse.”

Johnson comes to the HouseCheck Foundation with more than 40 years of experience in technical education, teaching, and workforce development. Among her wide-ranging experience, Johnson has served as CEO of Gateway Technical College; Chancellor of the Minnesota Technical College System; Associate Vice President for Planning, Research and Evaluation for the Colorado Community College System; and Director of Community Programs for The Johnson Foundation at Wingspread.

“We are truly fortunate to welcome Carole’s talent and experience to the Board,” says Dennis Conforto, Chairman of the HouseCheck Foundation Board of Directors. “Her passion for helping others and her proven ability to lead and build strong partnerships will only serve to broaden the reach of the Foundation and extend much needed support to more people in need.”

Outside of her professional career, Johnson was the Founder and long-term board member of 21st Century Preparatory School and has served as a Board Member for Sustainable Racine, the YWCA, Wheaton-Franciscan Healthcare, the Private Industry Council, Racine Public Library and TEMPO of Racine, among others.

She earned her Ph.D. from Ohio State University through an EPDA fellowship in Vocational-Technical Education with emphasis on Special Education and Research, and has taught at the elementary, high school and university levels.

About HouseCheck Foundation

The National HouseCheck Foundation is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit established to provide support to all individuals and families affected by domestic abuse. By providing grants and partnering with other organizations, the HouseCheck Foundation helps to provide safety, shelter, and resources to survivors of abuse. The HouseCheck Foundation is supported by the generosity of organizations and individual donors committed to providing help and hope to individuals, families, and their pets threatened by abuse, with donations and support generated locally remaining in the local community. For information on how to get involved, visit <https://housecheckfoundation.org/> or email Foundation@HouseCheck.net.

###